For employees newly appointed to the school, progression through the salary scale will be by annual increment on the anniversary of your appointment each year until the maximum point of the scale is reached.

Probationary period

New entrants to the School are subject to a probationary period of 25 weeks during which you are expected to establish your suitability to the post.

Medical approval

Successful candidates will be asked to complete a medical health questionnaire via Occupational Health, this is purely used to inform us of any health issues that may require reasonable adjustments to assist in their role.

Notice to Terminate

This appointment is subject to one month's notice by the employee. The school's notice varies according to the employee's length of service.

The person appointed will have the choice to:

- become a member of the Local Government Pensions Scheme; or

Standards of Conduct

The School’s Code of Conduct, and associated guidance, sets out the standards which are expected of employees.

Any attempt by a candidate to influence the selection process improperly will result in disqualification and, if appointed, may render the employee liable to dismissal without notice.

Safeguarding Children

Alsager School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Employing people with a criminal record

The School aims, as part of its approach to Valuing Diversity, to promote equality of opportunity for all and has an open-minded recruitment policy in relation to employing people with past convictions. At the same time children must be protected and a safe working environment provided for all employees.

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act allows for a person who has been convicted of a criminal offence involving a sentence of not more than 2½ years imprisonment and who has since lived trouble free for a specified period of time (related to the severity of the offence) to be treated as if the offence, conviction or sentence had never occurred. This is known as a spent conviction.*

However, this job is one of those to which the provisions of the above Act in relation to spent convictions*, do not apply. Applicants must therefore disclose whether they have any previous convictions*, whether or not they are spent.

Should an applicant have a criminal conviction*, this will be discussed in confidence at interview. However only convictions* that are relevant to the job in question will be taken into account. Failure to disclose any conviction could lead to an application being rejected, or, if appointed, may lead later to dismissal.

Certain spent convictions* are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account by a recruitment manager. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these convictions* can be found at the following link:

http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukxi/2013/1198/pdfs/ukxi_20131198_en.pdf

including cautions, reprimands or warnings.*

People who have convictions will be treated fairly and given every opportunity to establish their suitability for the job; all applicants will be considered on merit and ability.

Any information that you give will be kept in strict confidence and will be used only in respect of your application for the job.

Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS)

Successful applicants will be asked to apply for an Enhanced Criminal Record Check (Disclosure) from the Disclosure and Barring service.

A copy of the Disclosure and Barring Service Code of Practice is available on request.

Further information about the Disclosure scheme can be found at

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/disclosure-and-barring-service>

References

The appointment will be offered subject to our receiving satisfactory references.

One referee should be the applicant's current or most recent employer. Where an applicant is not currently working with children but has done so in the past, they should provide a referee from that employer.

NB: References will not be accepted from relatives or from people writing solely in the capacity of friends.
